Master Of The Shrine

O The Master of the holy Shrine[1]
You are the Majestic and the Divine
O The Gem of Muhammad's Crown
You are the light of God in our town[2]
O The golden hands that fly
Above the sick and those who cry
O The savior of the deer[3]
People love you so sincere
O The shining star of the sky
You are always out there so high
O The source of light in the believer's heart
You are always shining out there so bright
O The shining face in my eye
I cannot stand to tell you bye
O The preacher of the Holy Book
Tell me the words and catch me on the hook
O The rain of peace and glory
Your life is filled with many a story

Talat June Peiravi

1. Refers to Imam Al-Ridha' (a.s.)
2. Refers to the holy city of Mashhad
3. Refers to the well-known incidence of a deer taking refuge in the holy shrine of Imam Al-Ridha' (a.s.).
