Al-Islam.org
Ahlul Bayt Digital Islamic Library Project
Published on Al-Islam.org (https://www.al-islam.org)

Story no. 15: Peeping in the house of neighbours

Nasir was a boy of eleven years. He opened the window of his room and started looking in their neighbour's house. Meanwhile, his mother entered the room and caught his hand rather angrily. Looking at him, she said "My son, don't you know that staring into neighbour's house is a sin?"
Nasir who had never known this before replied "No mother, but thank you for your advice. I will not look into our neighbour's house again".

Yes, looking into the house of neighbours without their permission is not allowed, and what could be more better to pay attention to our children and not let them look into others houses without their permission.

Source URL:
https://www.al-islam.org/morals-children-and-young-mohammad-mehdi-taj-langaroodi/story-no-15-peeping-house-neighbours#comment-0