Winter

I will tell you about Jesus,

son of Mary.

he had a stone for his pillow,

wore coarse dress,

and ate rough food.

His lamp at night was the moon, and the earth's vast expanse east and west, his roof during winter.

His dessert and relish were what grows on the earth for cattle.

His feet were his means of transport and his two hands his servant.

(Sermon 160)
