

Published on Al-Islam.org (https://www.al-islam.org)

Home > Authentication Of Hadith On The Raj'ah > Appendix E: Summary Of Conclusions

Appendix E: Summary Of Conclusions

Conclusion	Criteria	Predictions
Likely to have been prophesised by the Imams	Supported by at least one hadith categorised as 'average' or better Not in conflict with established teachings of the Imams Not in conflict with other verifiable hadith	 The return of Imam Husain to rule until his eyebrows droop The return of Amir al-Mu'mineen, as both a commander and the Beast (dabbat al-ardh) The return of the pre-Islamic prophets to fight under Amir al-Mu'mineen The return of the Prophet Muhammad The return of the Imams to hold political power The return of the most faithful and the most faithless Destroyed peoples will not be returned What happened to prior peoples must be repeated The oppressed inheriting the Earth during the raj'ah
May or may not have been prophesised by the Imams	Not supported by any verifiable hadith ('average' or better) Not contradicting verifiable hadith Not containing obvious signs of falsification	The return of the companions of Imam al-Husain Imam al-Husain burying the Mahdi The Beast stamping the faces of the believers and the disbelievers The return of the Prophet as a political ruler The return of the Prophet to participate in battle The believers must 'die and be killed' Return of the Umayyids

Conclusion	Criteria	Predictions
		Paranormal events
		surrounding Kufa
Likely to have	Not supported by or	Imam Husain's speech to his been falsely	contradicts reliable	companions in Karbala about ascribed to the	hadith ('average' or	the raj'ah Imams	better)	Re-enactment of the Battle of Mentioned in	Siffin
	'unreliable' or 'very	Re-enactment of the Battle of
	unreliable' hadith	Karbala
	Related by narrators	The return of the muntasir and
	identified as extremists	the saffah
	or as corrupting hadith	The Prophet slaying the Satan
	Associated with one	All things separating into their specific unreliable	true forms during the raj'ah
	narrator	The return of 'Abdullah ibn
	Obvious signs of non-	Shareek al-'Amiri as a
	Islamic or extremist	commander for the Mahdi
	(ghulat) content	Isma'il ibn Hizqayl requesting Content which	to be raised in the raj'ah conflicts established	Return of individuals revered
	teachings of the Imams	in the Sunni tradition
	Content which	Verses ascribed to Amir al-conflicts with the	Mu'mineen about a rising in grammatical structure	Rajab
	of Qur'anic verses	Hadith about vengeance

Image:

Conclusion	Criteria	Predictions
Likely to have been prophesised by the Imams	Supported by at least one hadith categorised as 'average' or better Not in conflict with established teachings of the Imams Not in conflict with other verifiable hadith	 The return of Imam Husain to rule until his eyebrows droop The return of Amir al-Mu'mineen, as both a commander and the Beast (dabbat al-ardh) The return of the pre-Islamic prophets to fight under Amir al-Mu'mineen The return of the Prophet Muhammad The return of the Imams to hold political power The return of the most faithful and the most faithless Destroyed peoples will not be returned What happened to prior peoples must be repeated The oppressed inheriting the Earth during the raj'ah
May or may not have been prophesised by the Imams	Not supported by any verifiable hadith ('average' or better) Not contradicting verifiable hadith Not containing obvious signs of falsification	The return of the companions of Imam al-Husain Imam al-Husain burying the Mahdi The Beast stamping the faces of the believers and the disbelievers The return of the Prophet as a political ruler The return of the Prophet to participate in battle The believers must 'die and be killed' Return of the Umayyids

Conclusion	Criteria	Predictions
		Paranormal events
		surrounding Kufa
Likely to have	Not supported by or	Imam Husain's speech to his
been falsely	contradicts reliable	companions in Karbala about
ascribed to the	hadith ('average' or	the raj'ah Imams	better)	Re-enactment of the Battle of
	Mentioned in	Siffin
	'unreliable' or 'very	Re-enactment of the Battle of
	unreliable' hadith	Karbala
	Related by narrators	The return of the muntasir and
	identified as extremists	the saffah
	or as corrupting hadith	The Prophet slaying the Satan
	Associated with one	All things separating into their
	specific unreliable	true forms during the raj'ah
	narrator	The return of 'Abdullah ibn
	Obvious signs of non-	Shareek al-'Amiri as a
	Islamic or extremist	commander for the Mahdi
	(ghulat) content	Isma'il ibn Hizqayl requesting
	Content which	to be raised in the raj'ah
	conflicts established	Return of individuals revered
	teachings of the Imams	in the Sunni tradition
	Content which	Verses ascribed to Amir al-
	conflicts with the	Mu'mineen about a rising in
	grammatical structure	Rajab
	of Qur'anic verses	Hadith about vengeance

Source URL:

https://www.al-islam.org/authentication-hadith-rajah-amina-inloes/appendix-e-summary-conclusions