

At Mina

All the schools are in agreement that the rites after the halt at alMash'ar alHaram are those of Mina, and that departure from Muzdalifah is after the sunrise, and one who leaves before sunrise, passing beyond its limits, according to alKhu'i, must sacrifice a sheep as kaffarah.

At Mina one performs several rites which continue from the Day of Sacrifice (yawm alnahr), or the day of 'Id, until the morning of the thirteenth or the night of the twelfth. The wajibat of Hajj are completed in Mina. The three days following the day of 'Id (the 11th, 12th, and the 13th) are called "ayyam altashriq."<sup>1</sup>

Three rites are obligatory at Mina on the day of 'Id:

- (1) ramy of the Jamrat al'Aqabah;
- (2) al-dhabh (slaughtering of the sacrificial animal);
- (3) halq or taqsir.

Agreeing that the Prophet (s) performed first the ramy, then the nahr (or dhabh) and then the taqsir, the schools disagree whether this order is obligatory and if it is impermissible to change that order, or if the order is only mustahabb and may be altered.

According to alShafi'i and Ahmad ibn Hanbal, there is nothing upon one who changes the order. Malik says that if someone performs halq before the nahr or the ramy, he must make a sacrifice; and if he was performing Hajj alqiran then two sacrifices. (Ibn Rushd's alBidayah). According to the Imamiyyah, it is a sin to change the order knowingly and intentionally, although repetition is not required. The author of alJawahir says, "I have not found any difference of opinion on this point", and alMadarik states that the jurists are definite on this point.

Now we shall deal with each one of these rites under a separate heading.

<sup>1</sup> There is disagreement about the Ayyam alTashriq as to whether they comprise two or three days. As to their naming, it is because during those days the pilgrims used to dry strips of the meat of the sacrificed animals in the sun.
