

Hiding the Vowel Signs of a Declinable Noun

53. How many declinable nouns hide their vowel signs?

There are three types of declinable nouns that hide their vowel signs:

- A compliment to a prefixed yā' personal pronoun.
- Nouns whose last letter is an alif maqṣūrah (ى).
- Nouns whose last letter is a ya' preceded by a kasrah.

54. Which declinable nouns hide all of their vowel signs?

All of the vowels are hidden:

- if the noun is a compliment to a prefixed yā' personal pronoun because it would be difficult to pronounce the vowel. For example: إِنَّ مَذْهَبِي إِكْرَامِي لِضَيْفِي (Verily, my creed makes me respect my guest.)
- if the noun's last letter is an alif maqṣūrah because an alif cannot take a vowel. For example:
إِنَّ الْهُدَى هُدَى اللَّهِ (Verily guidance is Allah's guidance.)

55. Which declinable nouns hide the dummah and kasrah?

The dummah and kasrah are hidden in nouns whose last letter is a ya' preceded by a kasrah because of it being difficult to pronounce. For example: حَكَّمَ الْقَاضِي عَلَى الْجَانِي (The judge sentenced the criminal.)
