Graves

القبور-Graves

1. Stay near (or pass by) the graves and you will learn a lesson.

. جاور (جاوز) القُبُورَ تَعْتَبِرْ1

2. How excellent a son-in-law the grave is!1

. نِعْمَ الصِّهْرُ القَبْرُ2

1. In the period of J[®]hiliyya the Arabs would bury their daughters alive and say "We have married them to the grave." Later, in the time of Islam, this expression was used in a general sense to remind people that they will eventually die and be lowered into their graves.
